

QUICK 'N CLEAN FOUNDATION

STATEMENT OF VALUES

- Everyone can and should win.
- Campaign finance reform is essential to solve our social, political and economic difficulties and to realize our nation's amazing potential.
- Honest elections are the foundation of democracy.
- Our country must be one of inclusivity and not exclusivity.
- The human rights of all the world's peoples must be honored.
- We have an obligation to put forth our best efforts.
- We have an obligation to take responsibility for our personal actions.
- The impact of systems on individual behavior must be recognized and understood.
- Our children must be loved, nurtured, and celebrated.
- Our children must not be allowed to go hungry.
- All people are entitled to high quality health care.
- Quality and efficiency must be designed into our systems. We must not rely on inspection to solve problems after the fact.
- Competition must not be placed ahead of excellence.
- Organizations function best with a harmonious balance of masculine and feminine values.
- Human life is sacred.
- Property must not be placed ahead of people.
- Organizational transformation requires a wholistic systems approach.
- No one can go it alone. We all need help from our family, our friends and our government.
- No individual should have so much that another has too little.
- Our system of education is in need of an overhaul. W. Edwards Deming and David Langford have shown us the way.
- Effective leaders first touch a heart before asking for a hand.
- Organizations soar when leaders respect and believe in followers.
- All human beings are endowed with the same inherent worth.
- We are all capable of great things.
- The time for action is NOW.
